1	You are a really good teacher and you are good at explaining everything. I like how you make class very personal and are willing to help everyone. I can tell you are passionate about teaching us, so I appreciate that.
2	Preonline transition, James was a very enthusiastic teacher and could keep the class engaged
3	N/A
4	James is very knowledgeable and patient.
5	He is very engaging and wants to speak with everyone in the class.
6	He is good at getting the class active and engaging. Never seen an instructor care about their class the same way this guy does.

Q6 - Make a suggestion(s) for improving the course (a criticism alone is not helpful; tell your instructor how you would fix any problem).

1	You should show more videos and other materials. The book gets extremely dry after a while.
2	Sometimes, a reading or homework assignment would be assigned and due the next day. They were never very long assignments, but if I had a busy schedule that day specifically, I would sometimes not have time to do it
3	Nah he's golden.
4	N/A
5	Maybe trying to make this course a little bit more interesting by introducing some German songs?

Q7 - Given the unexpected change to remote instruction necessitated by the pandemic, what guidance can you offer to your instructor about the manner in which they delivered the rest of the course? Which aspects of remote instruction worked well, and which cou

1	Teaching a language class online is more difficult because students no forgo the speaking component. You can't supplement live in person conversation and activities with prerecorded lecture. There is little that could be done in this situation though given time zones.
2	N/A
3	James did well on this.
4	I appreciate the extra ilrn activities. It doesn't allow me to slack like I do in the other classes.
5	Great job!
